A 28-page booklet, CLAN DONALD IN THE UNITED STATES--illustrated with photographs of Armadale Castle, Lord Macdonald and others--has been published and is available to Clan Donald members at $2.00 per copy. Persons interested in this book, and in the MacDonald family in the United States, may contact Mr. Donald F. MacDonald, c/o The Charlotte News, Charlotte 1, North Carolina.

The West Texas Genealogical Society began first of this year to publish a small quarterly (the January issue had 5 pages; the April issue, 9) called the GENEALOGICAL BULLETIN. They are publishing genealogical and historical material; cemetery records, and so on; there is a Query Section. The BULLETIN is $1.00 per year to non-members. For details on memberships, etc., write to: West Texas Genealogical Society, P. O. Box 2303, Abilene, Texas.

The Grace Episcopal Church, Sandersville, Georgia, owns a Bible originally belonging to Frank H. Talcott, enscribed on the day of his marriage to Carrie C. Closson, 25 Dec. 1861. Their dates of birth and death are given, and those of their parents. The Bible was probably purchased in one of the New England States, and was given to the church by a local antique shop some years ago. The church will be happy to return the Bible to any descendant of the above. Write to: Mrs. F. L. Holt, Sandersville, Georgia.

THE INSTITUTE OF AMERICAN GENEALOGY in Chicago, Illinois, has gone out of business. The head of the organization, Mr. Frederick Adam Virkus, died, and the books and manuscripts have been purchased and are for sale by the SOUTHERN BOOK COMPANY, 530 North Charles Street, Baltimore 1, Maryland. The SOUTHERN BOOK COMPANY is in no way responsible for payments made to THE INSTITUTE OF AMERICAN GENEALOGY for the promised copies of Vol. VIII of THE COMPENDIUM OF AMERICAN GENEALOGY and Vol. V of THE HANDBOOK. Due to the illness and death of Mr. Virkus these two volumes never materialized. Write to the SOUTHERN BOOK COMPANY only if you are interested in one or more of the 75,000 manuscript genealogical lineages now offered for sale, formerly the property of Mr. Virkus, or in one or more of the thousands of genealogical books which this dealer has for sale. (Write for a free catalog.)

The SAN ANTONIO GENEALOGICAL AND HISTORICAL SOCIETY was chartered 11 May 1959, by the State of Texas. Their publication is called OUR HERITAGE. For details write to: P. O. Box 6383, Alamo Heights Station, San Antonio 9, Texas.

A five-year Index to THE NORTH CAROLINIAN, covering the first 20 issues (1955 through 1959) is scheduled for publication in 1960. Watch for further details on these pages. (See NOTE at bottom of page 280.)

REVIEWS

JERICHO FRIEND'S MEETING AND ITS COMMUNITY

A great amount of historical and genealogical data, 1818-1958, covering the Jericho Friend's (Quaker) Meeting, Randolph County, Indiana, is to be found in this volume. Genealogical material is given on hundreds of families, many of them from North Carolina. Among the earliest families were: Amburn, Bailey, Barnes, Boswell, Brown, Buckingham, Byrum, Chamness, Coats, Cox, Davis, Diggs, Ellis, Fouse, Frazier, Freeman, Fry, Gilbert, Graves, Gray, Hiatt, Hill, Hinshaw, Horn, Jones, Keys, Kindley, Little, Lister, Mendenhall, Nixon, North, Peacock, Perkins, Pickett (Piggott), Pike, Pope, Scott, Smith, Stanborough, Tharp, Thomas, Thornburg, Votaw, Walton, and Wooten. Much of the research was done by Willard C. Heiss of Indianapolis, Indiana, an authority on the Quakers of that section, and one of TNC's Contributing Editors. Abraham Peacock, one of the first settlers at Jericho, was from North Carolina, and was the great-great-great-grandfather of the noted author and news commentator, Lowell Thomas. 162 pages; 6" by 9"; illustrated; no index. Price: $2.25. Order from: Mr. Will Hendrickson, Route 3, Winchester, Indiana.

JOHN HANCOCK OF VIRGINIA AND HIS DESCENDANTS

This genealogy was begun in 1904 by Richard Ramsey Hancock of Auburn, Tenn., and completed in 1957 and published by Wenzola Robinson Kiger. It deals with John Hancock (c1733-1802) of Goochland, Fluvanna, and Patrick Cos., Va., and his descendants. Contains much interesting history as well as genealogy. 103 pages; $8\frac{1}{2}$" x 11"; nicely mimeographed; no index. Price: $2.00. Order from: Mrs. G. O. Kiger, 117 East 10th Street, Chattanooga, Tennessee.

ILLINOIS D.A.R. DIRECTORY

This Directory is intended to record the full names, national number, addresses and ancestral records of all members of the National Society, Daughters of the American Revolution in Illinois on December 1, 1956. 116 D.A.R. Chapters; upwards of 10,000 members; over 10,000 Revolutionary War ancestors listed (but many listed more than once, as several members joined through same ancestor); many North Carolina Rev. War patriots included. 556 pages; 6" x 9"; fully indexed. Price: $5.00, prepaid. Order from: Mrs. William Small, Piety Hill, 501 W. Jackson, Petersburg, Illinois.

THE VANDEVEER FAMILY

Mrs. Mabel Van Dyke Baer, genealogist, of Washington (16), D. C. (4513 Brandywine Street, N. W.), is preparing a Vandeveer family genealogy for possible publication. She has done extensive research on the family, and a sketch of the Indiana branch of the Vandeveer family appeared in the March, 1959, issue of the INDIANA MAGAZINE OF HISTORY (pages 65-70). The first of the family in America was Cornelis Jansz van der Veer (from Zeeland) who settled in New Netherland in 1659. The progenitor of the Indiana branch of the family was John Vandeveer, who married 1773 in Rowan County, North Carolina, to Amelia Speer, and later lived in Surry County. Removed to Kentucky by 1800, to Indiana by 1816.

BIBLE RECORDS OF EARLY EDGECOMBE
TOMBSTONE AND CENSUS (1790 and 1850) OF EARLY EDGECOMBE

Much praise has already appeared in TNC regarding the four splendid genealogical volumes published by Ruth Smith Williams and Margarette Glenn Griffin of Rocky Mount, North Carolina. Their Edgecombe WILLS was published in 1956; MARRIAGES in 1958. Their last two volumes, BIBLE RECORDS OF EARLY EDGECOMBE (1958), and TOMBSTONE AND CENSUS RECORDS OF EARLY EDGECOMBE (1959), along with their first two, have recorded and preserved for posterity the genealogical history of a county. (The alphabetized 1790 and 1850 censuses of Edgecombe County add much to the latter volume.) Price: $12.50 per volume. Order from: Williams and Griffin, Arlington Terrace, Apt. 112, Rocky Mount, North Carolina.

OLD ROWAN VIEWS AND SKETCHES

James S. Brawley, of "The Salisbury Post," (author of THE ROWAN STORY, see TNC, June, 1956), has preserved for posterity photographs of many of Rowan County, North Carolina's oldest buildings and historical landmarks, many of which are no longer standing. Mr. Brawley's OLD ROWAN VIEWS AND SKETCHES contains 32 pages of photographs with a brief historical sketch for each. Included are homes, churches, and stores, all of past generations. 32 pages; 9" x 12". Price: $2.00, and well worth it to anyone interested in Rowan history or early North Carolina architecture. Order from: Mr. James S. Brawley, Box 1243, Salisbury, North Carolina.

Supplement to JOHNSONS AND THEIR KIN OF RANDOLPH

In 1955 Jessie Owen Shaw published THE JOHNSONS AND THEIR KIN OF RANDOLPH, being a genealogical history of several families of Randolph County, North Carolina (see TNC, March, 1956). This year she has published a 40-page supplement, including errata, addenda, and additional data on the Blair, Gray, Johnson, Leach, and Lee families, and a five-generation genealogy of a Robbins family. The book sells for $10.00; the Supplement for $2.00. Order from: Mrs. Jessie Owen Shaw, 514 - 19th Street, N. W., Washington 6, D. C.

NOTE: A five-year Index to THE NORTH CAROLINIAN will be published next year (1960) and sold separately at a nominal cost (just enough to pay the printer). The Index will cover the first 20 issues (1955 through 1959). Beginning with 1960 TNC will feature an annual Index which will be added to the December issue each year. (TNC's subscription rate will remain at $5.00.)

1755 TAX LIST OF GRANVILLE COUNTY

Granville County, North Carolina, was formed in 1746 from Edgecombe County, and at that time embraced all of the present-day counties of Granville, Franklin, Warren, and Vance, and parts of Caswell, Person and Durham Counties. In 1752 Orange County was formed from parts of Bladen, Granville, and Johnston Counties. This 1755 tax list, therefore, covers all of the present-day counties of Granville, Franklin, Warren, and Vance, and is Granville County's oldest extant tax list.

To conserve space, the tax list will be arranged (below) in paragraph form. The three figures following each entry represent the number of white polls, the number of black polls, and the total number of polls (white and black combined). The original tax list consists of nine pages, two columns per page, with each column totaled. The population of the Granville-Franklin-Warren-Vance County area in 1755 consisted of approximately 839 white polls and 464 black polls; perhaps a total of 1,000 families. Allowing an average of six persons per family, the total population of the area was around 6,000 in 1755, compared with 118,774 in 1950.

Unfortunately, due to the age and condition of the original tax list (Archives, File No. T. O. 105), more and more names are becoming illegible, which will explain the blanks in this transcription.

THE BURNING OF NEW BERN (1791)

Contributed by Prentiss Price, Genealogist
426 W. Main, Rogersville, Tennessee

NEWBERN, October 1.
This town was, on Wednesday last, visited by an unhappy conflagration, which has destroyed its most flourishing part. The fire broke out at noon, in the house of Phillip Roche, a tavern-keeper, on the county wharf. The loft of that house being filled with fodder, the flames suddenly made their appearance through its roof, and almost instantly reached the contiguous house--the wind blew from the north-east. The stores of Messrs. Kennedy, Gerock, and Lawrence, were almost at once in a blaze, and had they been blown up, all further damage would have been prevented.

The fire soon reached across Craven and Front-streets to the old coffee-house, Mr. Donnell's and Mr. Tomlinson's stores. Nine houses on the east side of Craven-street, and seven on the water side of Front-street, were reduced to ashes. The north-west corner of Craven and Front-streets, commonly called Ogden's corner, was next attacked, and every house in both directions was burnt down, as far as the corner of Middle street on one side and Mess. Manning and Byrne's stores on the other were destroyed. The two last buildings were blown up.

Sixty-three houses were destroyed, as well as an immense quantity of goods. The loss sustained on this occasion amounts to upward of one hundred thousand pounds.

Philip Roche and his wife were last evening committed to gaol; many respectable inhabitants having evinced their apprehension that these people (whose house it is supposed was intentionally set on fire) would again attempt to burn the town.

1800 CENSUS OF BUNCOMBE COUNTY

Buncombe County, North Carolina, was formed in 1791 from parts of Burke and Rutherford Counties. This 1800 census is Buncombe's first census, and covered the entire western end of North Carolina--about a dozen present-day counties: All of the present-day counties of Buncombe, Cherokee, Clay, Graham, Haywood, Henderson, Jackson, Macon, Swain, and Transylvania, and parts of Madison (southwest two-thirds), and Polk (western third).

To conserve space, names only will be listed below. The names are copied in the order in which they appeared on the original, and are arranged in paragraphs according to pages. Surnames are spelled as on the original, but the most common given names have been abbreviated.

5812 - total population for Buncombe Co., N. C.

The dozen-county area covered by the 1800 Census of Buncombe County was over three million acres (10% of the total land area of North Carolina), or nearly 5,000 square miles. In 1800 the census taker listed 910 families, or nearly 6,000 men, women, and children; approximately $1\frac{1}{4}$% of the total population of North Carolina. One hundred and fifty years later (1950 Census) the population of the same area had increased 5,000% or from $1\frac{1}{4}$ persons per square mile (640 acres) in 1800, to over 60 persons per square mile in 1950, on the average. The 1950 population of Buncombe County, alone, was 124,403, including 51,310 for the city of Asheville (compared with 38 in 1800). The area of present-day Buncombe is 646 square miles, and the 1950 population gives an average of over 192 persons per square mile, or an increase of over 15,000% over the 1800 figures.
